

SEVA BHARATHI

Regd. No. 951/98

Ph.No. 03192 - 251455
DOLLYGUNJ, SOUTH ANDAMAN,
SRI VIJAYA PURAM-744103

Ref. No. _____

Date: _____

To
The Chief Editor
Daily Telegram
Sri Vijay Puram

Sub: Request to publish the enclosed Press Release in your esteemed paper.

Sir,

Seva Bharthi is a registered organisation engaged in various welfare activity for upliftment of youth of disadvantage group of society. In order to meet its objective a two days program was arranged for children between 6-16 yrs staying in the vicinity of South Point School, Shadipur. The details of the activities undertaken is attached for your kind reference and further action.

You are requested to kindly give due coverage in your esteemed Newspaper.

Yours Sincerely,

Secretary

Copy to:

1. News Editor Pradeshik Samachar, Prasar Bharthi
2. Chief Editor, Andaman Sheeka

Ref. No. _____

Date : _____

Press Release

Seva Bharathi successfully organised a two –day Sports Meet on 10th and 11th January 2026 at the Shadipur Ground with the enthusiastic participation of around 100 children. The event aimed at promoting physical fitness, discipline and cultural values among children.

A total of 27 traditional games and sports events were conducted during the meet. Emphasis was laid on indigenous games, helping children connect with India's rich sporting heritage while fostering teamwork, endurance and sportsmanship.

To commemorate the 150 years of "Vande Mataram", the iconic patriotic song was sung collectively on the sports ground creating a deeply emotional and patriotic atmosphere among participants and spectators.

The closing ceremony on the second day was marked by a special programme focusing on patriotism, ethical values, discipline, importance of festivals and Sanskar Kendra in shaping the character of children. Shri .C.R. Ghosh, retired chageman of Marine Department, a senior resident (86 yrs old) of South Point graced the occasion as the chief guest. Students who performed well in various events were awarded prizes and certificates as a mark of appreciation and encouragement.

Addressing the gathering, Mr.Thyagarajan, Sah Karyavah of RSS highlighted the role of value- based education in the holistic development of children. Dr.Raji also spoke on the occasion highlighting the importance of Seva Bharathi in nurturing physical, moral and cultural growth among children.

Shri Sandeep Majumdar, Senior Teacher addressed the students highlighting the importance and traditional ways of celebrating Makar Sankranti and other Indian Festivals.